

Summer Series Ranger Talks

Ranger talks will rotate between the James Memorial Art Center (JMAC) in Williston, ND, and the Mondak Heritage Center (MHC) in Sidney, MT.

Saturday morning Fur Trade Life programs will run 10 a.m. to noon CDT at Fort Union. These are hands-on activities geared toward young people.

Friday, June 6

“The Tongue is the Sweetest Meat: Buffalo Tongues in the Fur Trade”

Richard Stenberg, JMAC, 7:30 p.m. CDT

June 7 - Walk to Bodmer Overlook

Friday, July 11

“Lying, Stills and Trouble, O’ My! Kenneth McKenzie and the Still at Fort Union”

Lisa Sanden-Larson, JMAC, 7:30 p.m. CDT

July 12 - Blacksmithing at Fort Union

Thursday, June 26

“Reunion at Fort Union: The 1925-26
Upper Missouri Historical Expeditions”

Loren Yellow Bird, MHC, 7 p.m. MDT

June 28 - Tipi construction and etiquette

Friday, July 25

“American Success Story: John Jacob Astor”

Dave Carr, MHC, 7 p.m. MDT

July 26 - Conducting a fur trade at Fort Union

Friday, August 8

“Coming Full Circle: The Evolution of Thought Toward the Natural World”

Audrey Barnhart, JMAC, 7:30 p.m. CDT

Friday, August 22

“Lincoln and the Fur Trade: Republican Politics and the Fur Trade Legacy”

Randy Kane, MHC, 7 p.m. MDT

August 23 - Indian games

For more information,
call 701-572-9083